

THE RATION BOOK™

MEDIA PACK 2009

Taking it's name and idea from a time when people had to budget and make every penny count, JAM Media's 21st century interpretation of the Ration Book will offer the local consumer a range of money saving offers, discounts and promotions to help them make the most of what Tonbridge has to offer.

The first issue of the Ration Book will be posted by your local Royal Mail postman at the start of the summer holidays. With this guaranteed delivery method and the unique nature of the 64 page A6, pocket sized publication, our research indicates that the retention rates will be very high.

We recommend that adverts include a tear off voucher so you can monitor precise response rates and also suggest that you offer a discount or free offer to entice readers to visit you in person – It's then up to you.

With every address within 3 miles of central Tonbridge (over 22,000 letterboxes) receiving a copy, the Ration Book offers a fantastic circulation in the locality and we believe one that cannot be matched by any other method of advertising locally.
